Welcome to the Hovingham and Scackleton Newsletter

Welcome to another edition of the Newsletter with its usual mix of articles and fact and figures. I do understand that some of our readers would like us to enter more into debate and controversy but from the very start it has been our policy to avoid controversy and any bitterness and purely to keep people informed about what is happening in the two villages and surrounding area. And finally if you are reading this and living in Hovingham and don't know how lucky you are, see the story below from the Times and the Guardian Newspapers. Eddie Lucas

Contributions for the August issue are welcome. Please send them to newsletter@hovingham.org.uk by 15th July 2013

Hovingham in the News

Hovingham has recently been in the news, featuring as a lovely place to be and to stay. Firstly, a short bit from The Times, 18.03.13:

"Hovingham, Yorkshire Why is it so great? Surrounded by the lovely Howardian Hills and with the North York Moors on the doorstep, Hovingham is incredibly pretty as well as convenient if your sons are at Ampleforth College, which is a 15-minute drive away. It's easy to get to York too. Who lives here? Hovingham Hall, the 18th-century Palladian mansion, was the childhood home of the Duchess of Kent. It is owned by her brother, Sir William Worsley, whose family have owned it for 450 years."

And, secondly, from a travel article "Kevin's Unsung Corners of England" by Kevin Rusby a journalist for The Guardian, 02.03.13.

On a wintry Monday in February, as dusk gathers, Kevin Rusby starts his walk with his dog, Wilf, in the Howardian Hills. He describes them as "a stretch of low ridges and mounds....that conceal some delightful valleys and villages, a clutch of lost parklands, some interesting ruins, and some long-distance footpaths such as The Centenary Way, built to commemorate 100 years of the North Yorkshire County Council".

Starting at Kirkham Priory he goes up the River Derwent to the Castle Howard estate which he describes as "easily the most fascinating slice of parkland in Britain....which contains the pyramid, the Howard family mausoleum, the Temple of the Four Winds, and the house itself, designed by John Vanbrugh and built by the third Earl of Carlisle"

Then he heads north to Slingsby Bank "my favourite part of the walk. The ridge is gnarled with ancient earthworks, some perhaps thrown up by the Celtic Parisi tribe, who moved here from Gaul in pre-Roman times (Paris was named after them). Now it is a wonderful natural hideaway for wildlife. This was where the deer popped out on us"

From the Centenary Way he joined the Ebor Way, then spent the night at The Worsley Arms. "The lights were all on in the village when we arrived. Hovingham is a delightful spot, much of which is part of another large estate, belonging to the Worsley family."

He ate at The Star, and, the next morning, walked to Cawton with Paul Jackson of the AONB, then past "drifts of snowdrops, to Yearsley Woods, dotted with old fish ponds built by the monks of Ampleforth Abbey". At Yearsley they joined the Foss Walk, ending up at the Durham Ox in Crayke.

The small sick hedgehog found last August has blossomed into a full weight creature with a winter's hibernation behind him. He has now gone to an organic garden near Whitby which slopes into open fields, together with a young female given by the Hedgehog Hospital. They have apparently settled in though have not actually been seen in their new home. They were provided with a bag of food of the sort they were used to and this was scattered near where they were released. Over several days all was gone. Although it is cold for the time of year they have plenty of cover and access to water. It is the breeding season, so we hope they will have young which will be around in a month or two.

As hedgehogs are under severe stress since numbers have nosedived alarmingly, I hope they will have success and also keep Steve's slugs down. We thank Emma and all at the Hospital for their care.

A little bit of colour

Spring has been such a long time in coming; it was a relief to finally see the crocus and daffodils in flower at last. A little splash of colour around the village was very welcome.

Wildflowers have again been planted outside the village hall and I hope that in several months time we will have another patch of colour to enjoy.

Later this year we will be doing some more bulb planting, if you have ideas on good locations and would like to help then please contact action@hovingham.org.uk

Hovingham Village Market

The Village Market on May 4th was a success, with good weather and plenty of visitors. Thanks to Sir William Worsley we were able to use Hall Green for visitor parking which eased congestion in the village. Market traders parked on Coronation Green, and as usual we roped off the areas in front of the bungalows so that residents were less inconvenienced. There were 24 stalls outside together with the Ryedale Cheese van and Peter Thundercliffe's car from which he sold his fish – his van had bitten the dust but he has a new one on the way. Inside the Village Hall we had 8 more stalls. The café was run by Scackleton Action group, who made £412 for their funds. The Community Stall was run by the National Trust, and they will be back in July.

Most of our regular traders were at the Market. Doggie Stuff returned after a break as did Ruth Webb's Derwent Preserves. Recent additions who have become permanent traders include Staal Smokehouse, selling smoked salmon, trout and duck, and Puckett's Pickles selling a range of delicious concoctions, locally made.

The only black cloud hovering over the Market at present is the scarcity of helpers. Those of us who run the Market on a voluntary basis are finding it hard going with such a small group, especially when someone is away on business or holiday. If you can help occasionally for an hour or two once a month, please get in touch!

Many thanks

Martin Bell (01653 628494)

Church News

Maintaining the fabric of churches can be a nightmare. Inevitably, in rural villages the churches date back to a previous century, and in the case of the two churches in Hovingham, a lot further back than that! Hovingham Methodist Chapel was founded in 1815. Some of the stonework relating to All Saints' Church dates back to the 9th Century and the tower was built in the 11th Century. So it is not surprising that costly repairs become inevitable.

The Council of the Chapel have known for a long time that work was needed to repair the roof, and in March and April the church and vestry were re-roofed and the windows painted and repaired so that they could be opened and shut. This of course facilitated the drying out of the interior with a view to installing a new heating system. Also, during this time, the lean to behind the vestry was removed and pointing work on the walls was undertaken.

Whilst plans were being drawn up for this work to be done, I, as the Anglican representative on the Chapel Council somewhat rashly offered them the church for their services during the building period. What I hadn't bargained for was that work that we were planning would have started at about the same time. So when the Methodist faithful duly turned up for their Sunday worship at the South Porch of All Saints', they were somewhat taken a back to find all the pews in the north side of the nave were taken up and the area cordoned off. As the Revd Mike Smith welcomed his congregation, he announced to everyone's amusement that "the reason we're using the church is because we have the builders in the chapel"!

The first of three phases of repair work in the church has now been completed by Creighton and Sons, and as is so often the case the work turned out to be much more extensive and hence more expensive than first anticipated. The floor boards in the north east part of the nave have now been completely replaced and stonework in quite a considerable part of the exterior north wall has been renewed. Take a look and you will see for yourself what a brilliant quality of workmanship has been achieved, and the builders could not have been more sensitive to fact that they were working in a church.

The first phase of this work on All Saints' has now been completed and paid for, but phases two and three still need to be tackled. Furthermore, the church's reserves of money have been greatly depleted and fund raising will have to be undertaken before any further work can be embarked upon.

With dwindling and ageing congregations in both church and chapel, this is certainly going to prove a major problem. Although the church is in the first instance a place of worship for the local congregations, it is also a major landmark in the village and is available for christenings, wedding and funerals for everyone. As can be seen from the visitors' book it has literally thousands of visitors each year. Until about ten years ago we had a "Friends of Hovingham Church". This group comprised of villagers who were not necessarily interested or involved in the worship or ministry of the church, but who realised the importance to the community of the church building and were prepared to help raise money to keep the fabric in good condition. What will become increasingly clear is that if the village wants the church to be available in the future, it will have to lend support to this fundraising.

Eddie Lucas (with assistance from Carol Battersby and Joyce Skelton)

I am now standing down as Chairman of the Parish Council. It has been a privilege and a pleasure to have served the communities of Hovingham and Scackleton for the last 5 years and in that time much has happened. Here I reflect on what has been achieved and thank the unstinting commitment of members and residents of the communities.

When I took over the chair from Alick James the Newsletter (HandS), initiated by Gwyn Green and Robert Thompson, was in its infancy and Rural Action Yorkshire had just provided the wherewithal for a Community Plan. This was the catalyst and the blueprint for much that has happened since. The establishment of the Hovingham Action Group, particularly the Environment and the Market Groups, has meant that in Hovingham the appearance is improved by keeping it clean and tidy, and by planting colourful plants and bulbs.

Clearing snow from the pathways in winter has made it safer. The Village Market is now an institution winning both awards and national recognition thanks to the efforts of Mark Woolley, Martin Bell and their team. Within this the Community Café, run by local organisations, has generated thousands of pounds for use in improving their facilities.

The Hovingham blueprint was followed by Scackleton and their Action Group has become their focal point and enabled closer association. For all this we are indebted to Phil and Ann Chapman, Mark Woolley, Martin Bell, David Richardson and others too numerous to mention, and in Scackleton Wendy Swann, Rob Matthews and others. My sincere thanks also to Margaret Bell for ably Chairing the Plan Steering Group without which we would not be where we are now.

This developing community programme was something new to the Council. To enable some maintenance of control without stifling initiative, an infrastructure was established whereby Council members were represented on each group and reports were presented at each Council meeting. This “arms length” approach means the Council can meet its statutory responsibilities while the organisations can manage their own affairs and finances.

Turning back to the Newsletter, I wish to record my sincere thanks to the contribution made by its founders Gwyn Green and Robert Thompson in producing a very successful publication. However, two years into my tenure there was a hiatus and when Gwyn and Robert felt unable to carry on their excellent work a Newsletter Group was formed. My thanks to them for picking up the baton and ably continuing production.

At this time, too, a new lease and site for the Playground was negotiated with the Estate, with the Council maintaining its role as Custodian Trustee while day to day management was vested in a separate Playground Committee. My sincere thanks to Claire Wilson, Fiona Amer, and Malcolm Terry for re-establishing the facility and to David Richardson, Rosemary Stewart, Ann Chapman and Carol Battersby and others for continuing the good work.

In June 2012 the Queen's Diamond Jubilee took place. Wendy Swann, Mark Wilson, Phil Chapman and myself, with our Parish Clerk as Secretary, worked with Lady Worsley, who kindly made their house and grounds available. My sincere thanks to the Worsley's for their generosity and for inviting the Council to become involved in a successful self-financing event.

During the last two years a closer working relationship has been developed between the Council and the Village Hall Management Committee, resulting in clearer guidelines on responsibilities. My thanks to Neil Booth, the Chairman at the time for his help and co-operation.

In terms of the Parish Council a significant initiative was the appointment of Phil Chapman as Treasurer, whose considerable work has enabled us to develop a clearer picture of its finances and put in place a budgeting system that has provided greater financial control.

After the last 4 years' activity, 2012/13 has been a year of consolidation. Grass cutting has continued as normal, helping us to get through the year with just one additional grass cut, for which thanks to Mark Wilson. The next expensive project is the pointing of the cemetery dividing wall, stretching our budget to the limit.

Recently David Richardson has worked with the Environment Agency to put in place a Flood Plan for the village. This was fully tested this year following the heavy Autumn rainfall. Despite considerable concerns no houses were flooded, thanks to the efforts of our Flood Warden, Mark Wilson and his deputies John Anderson and David Richardson. They turned out at all hours and in all weathers to ensure that the drainage dyke, designed by Richard Orange-Bromehead on land donated by the Estate, worked. Thanks to all who ensured that the Beckside houses and others remained dry, unlike in 2000.

At the end of the year the Open Spaces Development Fund was established from monies from the developers of the Pasture Lane development. The Council has assisted the District Council in administering this. Bids are in and we await both the District Council's decision on the order of implementation and the second tranche of £23,750 both of which should be imminent.

It would be wrong to finish without thanking key people and institutions who have helped and supported me over the last 5 years.

- Firstly, Sir William Worsley and the Estate for their advice, help and co-operation, during which time Council and Estate relations have improved significantly.
- Second, Rural Action Yorkshire in particular Maggie Farey whose Community Plan initiative re-vitalised our village communities and for including us in such initiatives as the Participatory Budgeting exercise, providing a blueprint for similar activities.
- Third, thanks to Cllr Clare Wood for her continuing and considerable support, regular attendance at our meetings which keeps up to date on County Council affairs and for her many interventions on our behalf;
- Fourth, Cllr Robert Wainwright who keeps us abreast of District Council issues and his efforts behind the scenes to further the work of our villages;
- Fifth, Phil Chapman who despite the difficulties of his recent illness has continued to fulfil his role as Treasurer most effectively. Likewise his Chairmanship of the Action Group and Vice Chairmanship of the Council have been of unquantifiable help to me.
- Sixth, my sincere thanks to my Parish Clerks Janice Wood and Sue Wainwright, Janice for helping me through my initial faltering steps as Chairman and Sue for taking over the role and managing us and me through this turbulent period. Seven, sincerest thanks to my fellow Councillors for their assistance and support over 5 years.

And lastly I would like to thank all the residents for their continued support and wish my successor all the best in serving this community.

Ian Battersby

The Parish Council and the Hovingham Action Group have proposed a "Welcome to Hovingham" booklet, to be provided to newcomers and also existing residents. The primary objective is to inform and promote what is available for residents and those services they may need from time to time, together with ways they may wish to be involved with our Community. The booklet will be in a similar format to the current Market Shopping Guide.

If you are interested in helping "Steer" or contribute to this booklet, then please contact Phil Chapman or Sue Wainwright, email action@hovingham.org.uk.

Warning about Scammers – another local near miss

WARNING – Scam requests to send money to a friend

At least one Hovingham resident has received an email, from a friend, that they are overseas and have been mugged, losing their passport, credit cards and money. The email asks you to send them money to pay their hotel bill via organisations like Western Union.

These requests are almost certainly a scam and from someone who has stolen your friend's email address book using a computer virus. The email often does not contain any personal information and is sometimes sent to "Undisclosed Recipients".

Do not reply to them or send money, or any personal information such as your bank or credit card account. If your friend really needed your help they would contact you personally and exchange information only you would both know and ensure that they were genuinely your friend and in need.

If you believe you may have been the victim of such a fraud then report it to the Police.

Please be careful; it has really happened here in Hovingham.

May Parish Council Meeting

Report by Clare Wood

- Phil Chapman and Ian Battersby were congratulated on their above appointments.
- Recent elections: the turn out of electors had been disappointing in the Hovingham Ward but was above average for the County. She was committed to working hard for the next four years for the benefit of the 37 villages she represents.
- The new County Council leadership remains the same. Very large savings have to be made. With the exception of the roads she felt the public have not experienced a lot of changes in the front line services.

Report by Robert Wainwright

- The District Council AGM will be held on 16th May at 3.00pm
- On 9th May the provision of an indoor bowling facility in Ryedale will be discussed.
- The 3 day hearing for the Local Plan is on 22nd May, with the final report expected in July.
- Decision re the installation of 10 wind turbines at West Heselton to take place on 14th May at Norton College.
- The Parish Liaison Meeting is on 29th May at Ryedale House 7pm; NYCC Area Committee Meeting 12th June in Hovingham Village Hall 10.30am

Roads and Traffic

- Timber Routes Map A response has been received. The route via Coulton Mill had been approved as an excluded route. The clerk will speak to Hovingham Estate about the likely number of timber movements through Hovingham, and whether the Estate could influence the number, hours of movement and speeds of vehicles.
- Mosey Feed Vehicles Since these continue to operate outside the hours approved by RDC, a letter is to be sent to Mr I. Mosey with a copy to RDC Planning Dept.
- Speeding Mr R. Marr to be asked when the road marking will be done.

Flood Gauge Is in place. It is bigger than promised, nor against the wall of the bakery, as agreed.

Pasture Lane Development

- An officer will visit the site this week to ascertain the level of occupancy and whether the second payment of the Open Spaces Fund should be paid.
- The 5 applicants for the fund will be informed of the progress asap, with a review in 10 days when the situation on the 2nd payment is known. Prioritisation of the first payment will be considered if there is a delay in the 2nd payment.

Metal Waste Bin Liners No supply had been found yet. The post on top green had been replaced.

Scackleton Report

- Residents are concerned about the traffic and building work at the Goat Farm site on Scackleton Lane. RDC Planning Department has responded, asking the clerk to find out if the tree planting, part of the original agreement, would be carried out.
- Concern about heavy traffic, especially articulated grain wagons, using the route via Coulton Mill, continues to cause concern. The Mill owner has photographs of vehicles using that route. The PC will ask R. Marr if a weight limit could be imposed.

Scackleton Action Group Report

- Had raised £412 at the May Market Café. No news about the log seat for the pin fold.

Hovingham Action Group Report

- Playground picnic tables and seats are planned as a memorial to Sir William Worsley, awaiting Pasture Lane funds.

Finance

- There is a predicted deficit of £659 that includes painting the railings and pointing part of the cemetery wall.
- Cost of painting railings approved at £240, excluding York Hill and black straps.

Other Business

- Ryedale Area Committee – Phil Chapman volunteered to be a Co-opted Member.
- Hovingham residents have expressed concern about the condition of the building site at Wheelworth House, Park Street. Robert Wainwright will ask RDC about it.

- Mrs P. Worsley has suggested the formation of a group 'Friends of Hovingham Cemetery', to help with the up-keep of the cemetery. Since the PC already maintain the cemetery they did not wish to manage such a group.
- Quarry visit to be arranged by Mark Wilson before the end of June.

Moorsbus is the National Park's very own bus network. Operating on Sundays and Bank Holidays from 24 March to 27 October, it's a great way to explore the North York Moors. You'll recognise a Moorsbus by the plum and yellow triangle displayed at the front of the bus. In towns and villages they use normal bus stops but in the countryside you can hail the bus – drivers will stop wherever it is safe to do so.

Routes – the map below gives the full network. The M13 route takes in Hovingham to Helmsley and departs at 10.20 opposite the Worsley Arms. This connects at Helmsley to many of the other Moors Bus routes. A return bus leaves Helmsley at 17.40 from outside the Co-op and passes through Hovingham at 17.55.

For full details see the website: <http://www.northyorkmoors.org.uk/moorsbus>

MOORSBUS Tickets are for all-day travel on the Network. They are issued and accepted on Moorsbus, and by our partner services Scarborough & District 128, Yorkshire Coastliner 840 and Arriva 93 and 5 services on Moorsbus days.

Inner zone single ticket £6; Outer zone single ticket £9; Up to four children (ages 0-15 inc) may travel free with a fare paying adult except on Arriva services 5 and 93; £1 for an all-day ticket. Concession passes are accepted on most services.
